

ICPAM-10 AWARDS

To honor and encourage young scientists and students, the Organizing Committee awarded a number of prizes, financially supported by the ICPAM-10 sponsors, Organizing Committee and the Romanian Physical Society.

Ilie D. Bursuc Prize (200 EUR), offered by Cristina David

Ilie D. Bursuc Prize for the most original poster presentation by a young scientist C. Lefter, Y. Guralskiy, S. Tricard, G. Molnar, L. Salmon, A. Bousseksou, A. Graur, A. ROTARU
for the paper entitled
Studies regarding stability issues of Fe(Htrz)2(trz) spin crossover complex
Sponsored by: Cristina David

Organizing Committee: Assoc. Prof. Sebastian POPESCU, PhD, Dean of the Faculty of Physics, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi, Romania
ICPAM-10, PAMS-1 Chair: Prof. Felicia IACOMI, PhD

Neculai Sulitanu Prize (200 EUR) is offered by Alina Sulitanu

sponsor: ALINA SULITANU

Nicolae Sulitanu Prize for the most oral original contribution presented by a young scientist is awarded to Simonetta RIMA
for the paper entitled
Preparation of novel composite materials via CO-coagulation of NPs

Prize for the most original contribution (200 EUR), offered by the Organizing Committee

Organizing Committee Prize
for the most original contribution presented by a scientist Hossein Mahmoudi CHENARI
for the paper entitled
Structural and impedance spectroscopic studies of CuO based nanoparticles

Organizing Committee: Assoc. Prof. Sebastian POPESCU, PhD, Dean of the Faculty of Physics, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi, Romania
ICPAM-10, PAMS-1 Chair: Prof. Felicia IACOMI, PhD

Prize for the most original contribution (200 EUR), offered by the Organizing Committee

Organizing Committee Prize
for the most original contribution presented by a young scientist
Olena TYNKEVYCH
for the paper entitled
Temperature-dependent band gap variation in CdTe-CdS core-shell quantum dots

Organizing Committee: Assoc. Prof. Sebastian POPESCU, PhD, Dean of the Faculty of Physics, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi, Romania
ICPAM-10, PAMS-1 Chair: Prof. Felicia IACOMI, PhD

ICPAM-10 Sponsor's Prize (200 EUR)

Sponsor's Prize
for the most original contribution presented by a young scientist
Laura VELICU
for the paper entitled Nanomechanical characterization of amorphous and nanocrystalline FeCuNbSiB thin films
Sponsored by: NANOANDMORE GMBH
The World of Scanning Probes and More

Organizing Committee: Assoc. Prof. Sebastian POPESCU, PhD, Dean of the Faculty of Physics, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi, Romania
ICPAM-10, PAMS-1 Chair: Prof. Felicia IACOMI, PhD

PAMS-1 Sponsor's Prize (200 EUR)

Sponsor's Prize
for the most original contribution presented by a young scientist
Anton SMIRNOV
for the paper entitled
The model for laser annealing of non-linear crystals
Sponsored by: NANOANDMORE GMBH
The World of Scanning Probes and More

Organizing Committee: Assoc. Prof. Sebastian POPESCU, PhD, Dean of the Faculty of Physics, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi, Romania
